

JEWELL STARSINGER

AUTHOR • MYSTIC ABOUT JEWELL

A former victim who struggled with self empowerment, Jewell spent years of her life wanting to find her power.

"Where is it?"

She wondered as she dug around in her purse — Not in there!

She studied all of the "ologies" that science & religion provided. In the long run they all helped her fire up that self-esteem engine.

Transformation made her realize that humanity is on the edge of self realization. Her Substack is designed to connect the Divine tropes we all know and love, to the Mundane challenges with which we struggle.
